Profiles of the guest:

I studied fine art and philosophy in University. I have interest in nearly everything that makes us Human, from the big, to the small. I believe there are three original magics that all are the birthright of all human beings. Music, Conversation and community, and alcohol. Most of my interests can be connected to one of these three basic touchstones. Language, history, cooking, art, music, monsters comics, evolution of humanity etc.

I'm a professional English teacher and education fanatic, but I also see myself as a global ambassador of goodwill. I often dub myself an "Americana Expert" but to my great joy, there is always more to learn, no matter where you are from or where you reside. When I'm not busy, I'm usually reading, Listening to music at a very very high volume, playing games or keeping in touch with my friends and family. I've managed to continue my reading time with an average of 50 or 60 books a year.
