Title: How to Speak English without Translating

Abstract: For ELL (English Language Learner) students, to speak fluent English would be the primary goal. The difficult question is How? This lecture might help you find out the answer with the introduction of an important technique in English study — to speak without translating. In this lecture, there will be detailed explanation of the technique and certain practice to utilise it in the daily life. Hopefully, this lecture will broaden your horizon in the language learning and shed lights on your future study of English or other languages.
