Title : Namibia and the Ovahimba People: A Land of Opportunity

Guest : Nandjunga Kalambehamba Ndajambekwa Laimi (Namibia)

Abstract : Namibia is a country of breathtaking landscapes, diverse cultures, and promising opportunities for travel and business. With its vast deserts, abundant wildlife, and modern infrastructure, Namibia is an attractive destination for tourism and investment. This speech will introduce Namibia's unique appeal, showcasing its natural beauty and economic potential. A special focus will be placed on the Ovahimba people, a semi-nomadic indigenous group known for their rich traditions and distinct way of life, which adds to Namibia's cultural tourism appeal. By exploring these opportunities, this presentation aims to inspire interest in Namibia as a destination for both travel and entrepreneurship, fostering potential connections between Namibia and Japan.
