Title : Living & Exploring in Japan:

My PhD Journey in Seismic Safety

Guest : Mr. Vladimir Enrique GUZMAN JAVIER

(The Dominican Republic)

Abstract : In this talk, I will share my adventures in Japan from the perspective of a foreigner. In the first part, I will highlight my interests and preferences. In the second part, I will discuss my journey as a PhD student researching the seismic safety of buildings. I will explain the concept of seismic safety in simple terms. Together, we will explore how seismic safety is applied in education, the types of exercises conducted, and why everyone needs to understand these concepts. I will also provide a brief overview of my own research. Finally, I will share my dreams for the future.
